TUESDAY, - DECEMBER 10, 1889.

TOMORROW, Wednesday, will be a big day for Salem. It will be the real beginning of the growth and development which will make the famous college and summer resort town a busy industrial city. A number of people from this city will attend the sale, which will begin at noon, and the indications are that the 500 lots to be placed on the market will be disposed of with the greatest readiness. Remember the day tomorrow at noon and not Thursday as has been stated.

THE CITY COUNCIL AND THE ROANOKE AND SOUTHERN.

If the city council at its meeting today will remove all obstacles to submitting to a popular vote the question of subscribing an additional $100,000 to the Roanoke and Southern railroad the members of that body will be simply conforming to the prevailing sentiment of a majority of the citizens by whose votes they were chosen to their present positions on the board.

The people of this city are undoubtedly anxious to see the early completion of the new railroad, on the other end of which trains are now running every day.

The road ought to be built, too. There is no doubt about that, and the proposition ought to be submitted to the people separate and alone. The council have already decided, we believe, to submit the question of appropriating $20,000 for a hospital and $15,000 for a hall. These measures should not, however, be connected in any way with the railroad question. If we get the railroad, and there is every reason to believe we will, the hospital, hall and other things will follow in due time. Give us the railroad first, however, and Roanoke will witness the greatest development after its completion the town has ever known.

The proposition ought first to be submitted to the people, divested of all riders. Secondly, the people ought to see that the proposition carries.

THE OBSEQUIES TOMORROW.
The papers of the country are overflowing with Jefferson Davis literature, and much interesting "half-forgotten lore" concerning the famous chieftain of the lost cause is being brought to light again.

No event in the past year has created so much newspaper comment or touched the hearts of so many people, and for months to come the periodical and magazine press will take up the stories of his life and times, and set them in more enduring form for the benefit of the future historian.

The remains of the distinguished Confederate are now lying in state in New Orleans, where thousands have gone on a respectful pilgrimage to pay the last sad honors to the dead chieftain.

It is not yet decided as to where the remains will be permanently buried. Montgomery claims this honor because that city was the original capital of the Confederacy, and where Mr. Davis and his family had a wide circle of intimate friends.

Richmond puts forth a similar claim, as that city was the capital of the "new nation" when the banner of the South was finally furled and tenderly laid away.

New Orleans, where his last moments were spent, naturally claims him for her own, and finally the city of Louisville comes forward with the offer of a burial lot, formerly set aside for Mr. Davis' distinguished father-in-law, President Zachariah Taylor, but which was never made use of.

The widow's preference in the matter will, of course, decide where the remains of Mr. Davis are to be buried, but for the present, and possibly for a permanency, the body will be deposited in a New Orleans cemetery.

Memorial services will be observed in hundreds of cities and towns throughout the South. In this state Governor Lee has issued a proclamation calling upon all the churches in Virginia to hold special memorial services during the obsequies on Wednesday.

The different state legislatures that are in session in the South will commemorate the day with appropriate resolutions and orations. In our own state legislature, Virginia's matchless orator, Hon. John W. Daniel, has been requested to deliver a eulogy on the life, character, and public work of the departed statesman.

With the death of Mr. Davis the last cause for sectional animosity has been removed, and the two sections ought now, as they doubtless will, start off upon a new era of good feeling and increased prosperity.

VIRGINIA'S VOICE.

The vote cast in Virginia at the November election for governor and lieutenant-governor, with the exception of Scott county, which has not been properly returned and will not be counted, has at last been officially canvassed by the general assembly, and the result declared. For governor, McKinney, democrat, has a plurality of 42,953 over Mahone, republican, and a majority over all of 41,975. Tyler, democrat, for lieutenant-governor, has a plurality over Slem, republican, of 41,175, and a majority over all of 40,167. Whilst McKinney ran 448 votes ahead of Tyler, Mahone falls 1,330 behind Slem. The vote of Scott county, which has been thrown out, was about a tie between the democrats and republicans.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Budwell & Christian, druggists.

"Nellie Bly," the enterprising young woman who writes for the New York World, started for a tour around the world last week. She is going to outdo the famous Phineas Fogg in Jules Verne's story, and try to go round the world in less than eighty days.

A Valuable Remedy.

A letter from S. P. Wardwell, Boston, says: "I used Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Catarrh Cure in June last for Hay Fever with great satisfaction, and find it the only thing I have seen which would allay, without irritating, the inflammation of the nostrils and throat. Its soothing and healing properties were marked and immediate." Large bottle, $1. Clarke's Flax Soap is the latest and best. Price, 25 cents. Ask for them at Johnson & Johnson's Drug Store.

Congressman Randall occupies a small and very modest house on an unfashionable street near the capitol in Washington. His home is as unpretentious as his manners.

THE FIRST SYMPTOMS OF DEATH.

Tired feeling, dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores, are all positive evidence of poisoned blood. No matter how it became poisoned it must be purified to avoid death. Dr. Acker's English Blood Elixir has never failed to remove scrofulous or syphilitic poisons. Sold under positive guarantee by Budwell, Christian & Barbee.

Hiram Lester, now an inmate of the poor house of McDonough, Ga., is thought to be the oldest man in the world. His age is 120 years. Colonel Sloan of McDonough, who is over 80 years of age, says when he was a boy Lester was old man. He remembers all about the Revolutionary war, and knew George Washington.

DR. ACKER'S ENGLISH PILLS.
Are active, effective and pure. For sick headache, disordered stomach, loss of appetite, bad complexion and biliousness, they have never been equaled, either in America or abroad. Sold by Budwell, Christian & Barbee.

Martin & Powers, wholesale dealers in white goods and notions at Richmond, made an assignment Thursday. Liabilities, $55,000.

The Universal Verdict of the People
Who have used Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Skin Cure award it the first and highest place as a remedial agent in all cases of Skin Diseases. Erysipelas, Eczema, Pimples, unsightly blotches, humiliating eruptions, Boils, Carbuncles, Tetter, etc., all yield to this wonderful preparation at once. Price, $1 for a large bottle at Johnson & Johnson's Drug Store. Clarke's Flax Soap is good for the skin. Try it. Price, 25 cents.

Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge, of Richmond, addressed the christian conference in Tremont temple, Boston, Thursday, on "Christian co-operation in awakening the moral sentiment of the community."

THAT TERRIBLE COUGH
In the morning, hurried or difficult breathing, raising phlegm, tightness in the chest, quickened pulse, chilliness in the evening or sweats at night, all or any of these things are the first stages of consumption. Dr. Acker's English Cough Remedy will cure these fearful symptoms, and is sold under a positive guarantee by Budwell, Christian & Barbee.

The fine residence of Dr. William Turner, near Smithfield, Isle of Wight county, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday.

OUR VERY BEST PEOPLE.
Confirm our statement when we say that Dr. Acker's English Remedy is in every way superior to any and all other preparations for the throat and lungs. In whooping cough and croup, it is magic and relieves at once. We offer you a sample bottle free. Remember, this remedy is sold on a positive guarantee by Budwell, Christian & Barbee.

At the meeting of the Richmond Terminal directors to be held in Richmond this week, no action will be taken looking to the retirement of the preferred stock. The plan to take up this security has been abandoned.

REMARKABLE CASE.

For two years I had rheumatism so bad that it disabled me for work and confined me to my bed for a whole year, during which time I could not even raise my hands to my head, and for 3 months could not move myself in bed, was reduced in flesh from 192 to 96 lbs. Was treated by best physicians, only to grow weaker.

Finally I took Swift's Specific, and soon began to improve. After a while was at my work, and for the past five months have been as well as I ever was—out from the effects of Swift's Specific.
